Sojourn at Ararat (CD)

&

On the Couch with Nora Armani (DVD)

1. Sojourn at Ararat (Audio Disc) is a co-creation between Actor/playwright Nora Armani and Director/actor Gerald Papasian. As an award-winning double hander it has toured extensively worldwide (from Sydney to Yerevan) since its successful premiere in 1986 at the Edinburgh Festival Fringe. Recently it had a 20th anniversary revival at the Fountain Theatre in Los Angeles in a new cast. The current CD is the original cast recording. This anti-war epic piece is so 'timeless and timely' according to one reviewer. Both original cast (English and French versions) and new cast (English version) performances are available for touring. An excellent example of cleverly translated poetry to tell the story of humanity. Listen to audio clips on: <http://www.noraarmani.com/>

2. On the Couch with Nora Armani is a self-penned one-woman piece about identity, belonging, multiple cultural experiences and life coincidences that bring us where we are and make us who we are. Performed by actor/ playwright Nora Armani, it takes the viewer on a journey through 'song and dance, laughter and tears' as one reputed audience member eloquently put it. The show is available in both its English and French versions. The DVD portrays the English version filmed for TV on a sound stage in New York.

Listen to Nora Armani's interview on KUHF (Houston Public Radio).
